A word from K. Hovnanian® Homes

As we continue to monitor and evaluate the rapidly changing situation in response to the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19), K. Hovnanian Homes remains committed to the health and well-being of our customers, homeowners, associates, vendors and guests. Like you, we have been diligently following U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidance and recommendations (www.cdc.gov). We are doing all we can to ensure that safety is our highest priority.

Many of you are undoubtedly finding yourselves at home during this crisis. For years, K. Hovnanian Homes has invested greatly in improving your online home shopping experience, so please know you have many resources still available to you on www.khov.com from the comfort of your own home to continue your new home journey.

If you would like to visit with us, our communities, sales offices and model homes currently remain open. We suggest that our guests call ahead to schedule an appointment as we are practicing social distancing per CDC guidelines and want to give you the time and space you deserve.

As we are all aware, this is a fluid situation and things continue to evolve quickly. We will continue to monitor CDC and local and state guidelines to ensure that our associates, trade partners and guests feel confident when visiting our communities. We have cancelled or postponed all community activities and sales events until further notice.

We thank you for your continued trust in K. Hovnanian Homes. Since our founding in 1959 we have been devoted to building homes and communities of excellence. At the core of our business is family, just like yours, and we are dedicated to seeing this unique and challenging time through together.
